Cooking Instructions

We have had several requests from families on instructions for cooking the frozen food we give out. Most of the donated frozen food that comes on Saturday has instructions on the box. If you are dividing up that food on Saturday or Monday, please take a few minutes to cut out or copy the instructions for preparing the food. If you have time, please put them into the computer (in a folder labeled "Cooking instructions for frozen food". If there isn't time, or you are not comfortable with the computer, please leave them on the desk for someone to enter.
