The Freezer is Here!

It's in! It's running! It's beautiful! If you have a chance, please thank all those who helped make this possible, including:

- Jaycees, Optimists, South Slope, INS, Drinks, Penney's, Michael and Bonnie G, and Lucy L for funding
- Natlie W. for many hours on the phone and internet
- Craig M for running the electrical and doing emergency plug replacement

Kudos to Lynn J. Her award nomination says:

"During the summer Lynn would stop at Lisa's to collect clothes that were sorted and bring them in during her shift and put them away!!"

Pantry in the News

We made it into the Press Citizen this week in our effort to find funding for a paid coordinator. The article is at:

www.presscitizen.com/apps/pbcs.dll/article?AID=/20061119/NEWS01/611190307/1079/NEWS

They did a really good job except for the part about the church and the pantry. The pantry is still and will remain a part of the church.

Where do I Put It?

If you have completed Family and TEFAP forms, please put them in the blue file folder at the front of the top drawer of the tan file cabinet.

Help Wanted

"Reorganizer" The volunteer cabinet is getting really full, and we would like someone to reorganize the contents and find other places for some of the items.

"Storage" Someone to store clothing for a few months. The area used should be mouse-proof but does not need to be heated.

"Shoe lady" (or man) Someone to sort, match, and label shoes (materials provided).
